

House Resolution No. 742

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize Becky Hunt of Fredericktown, Missouri, who will be honored with the Fredericktown Chamber of Commerce Distinguished Community Service Award during the organization's annual awards banquet to be held March 8, 2003; and

Whereas, the Distinguished Community Service Award is given annually to an individual who has a track record of community involvement, integrity, commitment, dedication, and dependability, and has proven to be a positive role model for others in the community through willingness to assist in community projects, promote community pride, and work tirelessly for the good of the area; and

Whereas, Becky Hunt currently serves as the Coordinator of the Madison County Health Department, in which capacity she is credited with helping the Department to become an integral part of the Madison County community and an example for the entire Show-Me State through its commitment to serve each and every person who comes through its doors; and

Whereas, Becky Hunt is known and admired as a selfless volunteer for her efforts to organize a program through which members of the community read the daily newspaper and record it on tapes that are distributed to the blind; and

Whereas, a member of the Salvation Army Board of Directors, Becky Hunt is an invaluable member of a recovery team that has helped the area rebound from floods in 1999 and 2000 and from a tornado in 2000; and

Whereas, Becky Hunt established a teen pregnancy prevention program, a mentoring program that teaches abstinence to teenagers, a mentoring program which has saved 600 students in the last year; and

Whereas, a native of Fredericktown, Becky Hunt considers herself most fortunate for the love and admiration of her devoted husband, Larry:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty and robust congratulations to Becky Hunt at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction, and in wishing her only the very best as she continues to serve as an inspiration to those who know and love her; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Distinguished Community Service Award recipient, Becky Hunt of Fredericktown, Missouri.
